John Whitbread

On behalf of the steering committee Thorncombe Village Trust

A speaker from The Council for the Protection of Rural England will address the Inaugural Meeting. The CPRE is the foremost national body for the environmental conservation of rural England.

It would help the Trust if you would be prepared to pay your subscriptions before the meeting in order that a bona fide membership can be established to lend weight to our submissions. Only fully paid-up members over the age of 16 years will be eligible to vote.
